Nettle is DJ /rupture & DD. For Firecamp Stories they invited an international array of musicians and sound artists to remix material from Nettle's debut album, Build A Fort, Set That On Fire (AG016).

Spurred on by the unique Nettle material—heavily textured desert music referencing the shifting street beats of deep Brooklyn, south Spain, and North Africa—the musicians poured an unusual level of passion and attention into the project, resulting in everything from hip-hop-gnaoua fusion (US expat /Rupture and one of Morocco's premiere vocalists, Nass Marrakesh's Aziz Arradi) to dubbed-out techno breakbeats (Japan's Com.A and DJ Shiro the Goodman) and conceptual sound-art (Alejandra & Aeron, I/O).

Leafcutter John conjured a touching 21st-century folksong with voice, guitar, and laptop processing; plunderphonic Donna Summer crammed Nettle soundbites into his post-disco mentalist mix. Tokyo's Joseph Nothing went cinematic (think Ozymandias trudging in the desert) while Osaka's Ove-Naxx forged a breakneck stormer from equal parts compositional elegance and upbeat brutality. Agriculture/WE's DJ Olive and Mentol Nomad from the Wordsound camp both turned in unhurried, near-ambient breakbeat pieces.
